Suggestion T. Pope Shepherd Adopted by Judge McReynolds and Gen. Whitaker.

The plan suggested by Assistant Attorney-General T. Pope Shepherd, which means the savings of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of Hamilton county was adopted by criminal court officials Monday morning. The plan is for the doing away with grand jury investigations in misdemeanor cases and allowing these cases to go up by presentment signed by the attorney-general and his assistant. Just as a starter, when the grand jury met Mon. sentment signed by the attorney-general and his assistant. Just as a starter, when the grand jury met Monday morning one hundred or more witnesses were excused by the inquisitorial body, which means a saving of one dollar each for their attendance. The order adopted by the court and which is self-explanatory is as follows:

"The following rules of procedure shail be in force and effect in the criminal court of Hamilton county from and after the second Monday in July.

and after the second Monday in July,

"In all misdemeanor cases bound over from the city court of Chattanooga and the justices of the peace of the county the papers shall be referred to the attorney-general for action and in all proper cases, within the discretion be filed setting forth the offense with reasonable particularity of de-scription and nature thereof. Such in-formation shall be signed by the at-torney-general under his official oath and shall be substantially in the form of an indictment or presentment and shall not require a prosecutor.

"It shall be the duty of the said city court and the justices of the peace of the county to file with the cicrk of this court the papers in all bound-over cases within two days from the date of the action thereon, and such papers when filed shall be immediately referred to the attorney-general for action.

The attorney-general is authorized to file information in same manner and form upon original complaint made of a violation of any law designated as misdemeanor, if, in his judgment, the facts disclosed warrant a prosecution,

"Upon the order of the attorneygeneral subpoena for any witness desired in the investigation of any misdemeanor case shall be issued and served as in cases before the grand jury, and such witness shall be required to present himself at the grand jury room in the courthouse and be examined under oath by the attorneygeneral or assistant attorney-general.

V.

"Nothing in these rules shall inter-fere with the right of the grand jury to make investigations and return in-dictments or presentments in misde-meanor cases.

"Upon return and filing of informa-tion the clerk of the court shall post in a conspicuous place in his office a list of the informations filed, giving the name of each defendant and the offense charged. All informations returned shall be noted on the record and en-tered on the rule docket as in indict-ments and presentments.

GRAND JURORS BEGIN PROBE OF WORKHOUSE

Alleged Whipping of Charley Long Basis of Extensive Investigation.

The Hamilton county grand jury is in session Monday and the recent alleged whipping of Charley Long, a negro, at the workhouse is undergoing a sweeping investigation and it is thought the jury will report some indictments incident to the whipping of the negro. It will be remembered that some time ago Long charged that two workhouse guards had beat him unmercifully, and showed the stripes on his body as proof of his statement. Chairman Frank Spurlock stated that when the workhouse commission met they would also investigate the story

Many other cases will be investigated by the jury before it adjourns for the session.

PUBLISH THRIFT STAMP "SLACKER LIST" SOON

Men of Means Who Fail to Buy Being Listed-Meeting at Nashville.

Tennessee's thrift stamp "slacker list." which may cause a mild social furore upon publication, is rapidly being compiled and Hamilton county's section, though probably of no great length, will have a personnel which is surprising. It is the plan of the war savings committee to publish the list of names in each county of men in that section whose means are known to be ample, but who have failed to purchase thrift stamps. Those whose purchases are ludicrously small will also be added.

Richard Hardy, vice-director, and Mrs. Nora A. Parker, secretary of the state committee, will attend a meeting in Nashville Wednesday, where representatives of eighteen counties which failed to sell their quota will discuss plans for completing the sale. These counties are not to be allowed to fall short and a second drive of some sort will be devised to complete the quotas.

T. R. Preston, state director, commenting on the situation today, stated that it is beyond his understanding how people can refuse to respond to these patriotic plans for financing the war. As an illustration of the necessity of a liberal response he pointed out that the people of Belgium are now being taxed $150 a year per capita by the German government. "They can no longer pay in money," he said, "but must supply in hides, wood or any other valuable that they may still possess. I see where Mr. McAdoo says that victory for Germany would probably mean the turning of the British. Italian and French navies over to the Huns. This would mean world domination for all time. So you see what we face, and, by the Belgian example, what we have missed; whereby it behooves us all to buy all the bonds and thrift stamps that it is possible to take care of." T. R.
